We've had a Facelift!

Wow ~ what a difference a coat of paint makes! Thank you Michael Walczak for volunteering to paint the walls of the gallery. They look phenomenal! If you haven't been to the gallery lately you need to come by and check it out. The walls are now 2 tones of gray, lighter at the top, darker at the bottom, with white trim. You may be able to notice it in the pictures of the pot luck supper on pages 3 and 4. There's been talk for a while to paint the interior walls and the Board voted on gray tones so that your artwork would look its best during a show or an exhibit.

Eli Cedrone

Our demonstrator on Wednesday, February 17, at 7:00 pm will be oil artists Eli Cedrone.

Eli has always been influenced by the power of images to express ideas and emotions. Painting is a process of discovery and decision making where disparate elements pull together until the image is clearly expressed. Ultimately her concerns are with the expressive qualities of light captured with paint. She describes her style as Contemporary Impressionism.

Eli graduated from the School of Art & Design/Suffolk University in Boston. After graduating she began a career in advertising in Bermuda. A brief hiatus from her job landed her in Florence, Italy to further study art. From Bermuda she went to California for 10 years working as an illustrator and magazine designer. She then came back to her roots in Boston where she continued her studies at the School of the MFA and began painting full-time. She returns to Bermuda and California often to teach workshops.

You can view Eli's work at www.elicedrone.com.
