Congratulations

TAA wishes to congratulate our scholarship winners this year.
The TAA Scholarship was awarded to Madison Littlefield of Middleboro. Madison (pictured below left) will be studying filmmaking at Brooklyn College in New York.

The John Barradas Scholarship was awarded to Brianna Medas of Norton. Brianna (pictured below right) will be studying visual arts at Wheaton College. Both girls stopped by during the demo to show us their work.

Brianna (left) pictured with one of her charcoal drawings.
Madison showed us her short film.
Both girls are extremely talented and we wish them luck!

Thank you to Bill Lane for doing a thoughtful and thorough job of judging the artwork.

Thanks to all of you who made this show possible: Nancy Clark, Kathy Carpenter, Linda Remedis, Mike Walczak, Sis Denson, Ann Rebello, and Chet Fortun. Thanks to all of you who donated items for the auction and for the refreshments.

May Demo

Our May demonstration with Eleanor DaRosa was a working demo but lots of fun. We all got to try our hand at calligraphy. Usually calligraphy is done with pens that have different nibs, but Eleanor brought us calligraphy markers, which we were all able to take home. Thank you! Papers marked with guidelines were passed out to everyone. The papers also had different styles of lettering printed on them that we could practice. The trick is in the angle of the nib. Just like anything, practice, practice, practice!

June Moon Critique Night

June 15, 2016

One of our popular events is back! TAA will be hosting a critique night for artists and photographers. You will also be able to make your own ice cream sundae while you wait or watch.

$5.00 = one critique and one sundae.

$3.00 = each additional piece.

$3.00 = sundae
