On Wednesday, February 17 at 7:30 pm, TAA welcomes Michael Evans as our guest demonstrator.

Michael, who resides in Attleboro, MA, grew up on a dairy farm in New York. Some of his favorite subject matters are barns of upstate New York, the beaches of Cape Cod, and the gardens of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Michael turned to art, his first love, after working in the Mutual Fund industry. He started taking classes at the Attleboro Arts Museum and continued his education by taking classes with Colleen Vandeventer, Monique Martin-Courcy and workshops at the Lyme Art Association in Old Lyme, CT.

His favorite mediums are oil and pastel and Michael began painting with soft pastel in 2006, which provides the vibrant colors and beautiful textures that he loves. He has recently created more abstract works of art by experimenting with fabric collage, which draws from his past experiences with quilting.

Michael is a member of many art associations and shows his work frequently. He has won numerous awards at regional shows, including a Juror's Choice Award at the Attleboro Arts Museum.

Pantone, the leading color authority, has unveiled the color of 2010: Turquoise. In times of stress this color evokes a soothing property that makes people think of serene tropical settings. In many cultures it is seen as a protective talisman and most people respond to it in a positive way.

Annual Pot Luck Supper

On January 20, TAA once again held it's Annual Pot Luck Supper, Raffle and Auction and once again it was a great success. Many people were in attendance and the food was plentiful and tasty and the auction was a lot of fun. Thanks to Sis Denson and Chet Fortun for setting up and making the supper possible and thanks to Kevin Burns for conducting the raffle.

Congratulations to our raffle winners: 1st prize went to John Winters, 2nd prize went to Lucille Kula and 3rd prize went to Alex Woodard.

Thanks to Ben Macomber and Ted Nystrom (our auctioneers) for conducting a great auction. They kept us in stitches once again with their humor. The items auctioned off ranged from the sublime to the ridiculous (which I can personally attest to) and much thanks to Ted Nystrom and Roberta Costa for donating their paintings to be auctioned off.

Congratulations to our new Recording Secretary, Toni Card. Welcome aboard!

For those of you who have never been to the supper, please try to make it next year; you're missing a lot of fun!

Nancy Clark opens her auction item.

Below, Ted Nystrom and Ben Macomber start the auction.
