Dear Member,

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

As you can see from our cover the theme for 2013 is 'Art in Perspective'. If you have any art/photos that shows perspective or has a different take on perspective I'd love to have it for subsequent covers for the newsletter. I would need 8 more images for the rest of the year starting with February. If you are interested you can email me a photo of your work to srboerman@comcast.net. I would have to have the image within the first 2 weeks of the previous month.

Sincerely,
Sue Boerman

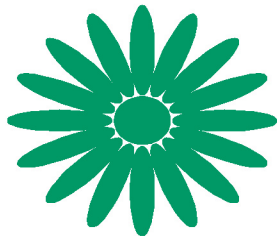

NEW: On Sunday, January 27, TAA will host an Open Poetry Reading.

Sign up for readers is 12:30 pm and readings begin at 1:00 pm.

Light refreshments will be served. This is a free event.

Thanks to Bonnie Powers for donating her time teaching the Wreath Workshop on December 1.

The Color of 2013

Pantone®, the leading color authority, has declared the Color of 2013 as Emerald.

This green enhances our sense of well-being and promotes balance and harmony. For centuries green has represented healing and unity and it implies growth, renewal and prosperity.

Pot Luck Supper, Raffle & Auction

On Wednesday, January 16, 2013 at 6:00 pm, TAA will be hosting it's annual Pot Luck Supper, Raffle & Auction. As you know our supper is our big fundraiser and we'd like you to join us for a wonderful evening of homemade dishes and desserts; please bring your favorite.

In addition to the supper we will have artwork for sale by Joan Roster, a past president and one of the founders of TAA. Joan is looking to downsize and has given us paintings to sell for her. All are priced at $50.

Once again our auctioneers, Ben Macomber and Ted Nystrom are ready to bring you an entertaining auction. Please don't forget your item for the auction. You don't need to be a member to attend, so please bring a friend!

On November 14, TAA welcomed Ann Gorbett as our monthly demonstrator. Ann is a palette knife painter who loves mixing color so she does not limit her palette. She uses several brands of paint, such as Rembrandt, Gamblin and Utrecht, because each brand has a different textures.

Ann enjoys painting square surfaces and her favorite are wood cradleboards. They are better to paint on when using a palette knife or thick paint and they don't have to be framed. Her knives have different tips and the tips are different shapes, i.e. pointed or rounded.

As a medium Ann prefers impasto mediums, such as Liquin, to extend the color and speed the drying time. She won't use any turp; she'll just wipe her knife clean with tissues. She likes to finish a painting in 1 or 2 sessions and will work from photos, but really likes using her iPad because the colors are better and you can zoom in close.

The photo above left shows Ann with her demo painting of a log with greens and pinecones. The board was underpainted in acrylic with orange and the design was then "sketched" with Prussian Blue mixed with medium for the placement of the elements. When painting the greens she added a little red to the green so the color didn't look fake. The main color, highlight and shadow colors are mixed ahead of time. She lays her colors down carefully and doesn't overstroke.
