'Laundry Day' by Ken Perlow

Dear Member,

You may or may not know that Tiago Finato offered to do a portrait of Mayor Hoye on behalf of TAA. The portrait is finished and will be unveiled at the Trescott Street Gallery on Sept. 14 during the Paint the Downtown event. We are honored to do this for the mayor and we hope many of our members come in support of TAA and to be a part of the unveiling.

Get your artwork ready for our Fall Art Show in October! The registration form and all the details are in this issue.

In July we hosted an exhibit for the McGrath Art Scholarship recipients. There are pictures of some of the entrants in the center of this newsletter. Lots of talent!

Sincerely,
Sue Boerman

Judy is pictured with one of her quilted bedspreads.

On Wednesday, September 18 at 7:00 pm, TAA welcomes Judy Stuart as our guest quilting demonstrator.

Judy, a lifelong resident of Middleboro, member of TAA and Treasurer since 2009, has been sewing since childhood. From doll clothes to her own wardrobe, she was taught by her mother and Judy's family boasts a number of quilters.

In 1976 Judy was given a double bed quilt top with the Wedding Ring pattern that was constructed by her grandmother but never completed. This was the first quilt Judy ever worked on and the rest is history. She has been making quilts and quilted items ever since and at Christmas she'll do multiple projects for family members

Judy states, "Today, there is no end to what can be accomplished! I love the fabrics that are available. Some are what I call 'yummy'. There are certain colors that are hard to leave on the shelf! It is fascinating to watch the designs come to life as the pieces are sewn together. It is definitely an art form. I am happiest when my hands are busy, so this additction to quilting suits me."

With Sympathy

TAA wishes to express its deepest sympathy to Ann Rebello and her family on the passing of her brother, Joe McKenna, who passed away on July 10.

TAA also expresses its sympathy to the families of former members Barbara Furze, Rose Gordon and Agnes Lemaire. Agnes was the sister of past president Lu Kula.

Welcome!

Welcome to all of our new members and a thank you to new member Laura Carlson for becoming a Patron of TAA.
